Accordingly, on motion of the United States and for good cause, the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture entered on February 29, 2012, is hereby VACATED, and this Amended Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is entered in its place.

The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General or his designee may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the property.

Any person, other than the above-named defendant, asserting a legal interest in the property must, within thirty-five (35) days after receipt of notice, or no later than sixty (60) days from the first day of publication on the official internet government forfeiture site, www.forfeiture.gov, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the property, and for an amendment of the Order of Forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. ' 853(n), as incorporated by Title 18, United States Code, Section 2253(b).

If no third-party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(c)(2).

The United States shall have clear title to the property following the Court-s disposition of all third-party interests, or if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C.
